Wedding Photography Price List

At Reflected Light Photography we don't force you to buy complicated preset wedding packages that come with things you may not need or want. Instead we allow you to design your own package choosing just the items that are important to you. Our method of pricing also allows you to spread out your investment. You can choose to purchase just wedding coverage up front, and then add additional items such as prints, an album, or a custom sideshow on DVD at a later time. We invite you to look through our list of options and decide how you want your wedding to be remembered.
